Recommended Tablecloth Sizes

DROP LENGTH OR DRAPE

Is the length that a tablecloth hangs from the top of the table. The longer the drop the more formal the setting.

- » 9-12" drop is considered sufficient
- » 15" or more is formal
- » Floor length, being the most formal
- » Since polyester does not have as much shrinkage as cotton and cotton blends, you can use a smaller corresponding size

FORMULA FOR A DROP LENGTH

Example for a 30x72 Table with a desired drape of 12"
Desired Drop + Desired Drop + Table Width
 $12 + 12 + 30 = 54$
Desired Drop + Desired Drop + Table Length
 $12 + 12 + 72 = 96$
Tablecloth should be 54x96

THE BENEFITS OF ORDERING STOCK SIZES:

- » Most standard sizes are also stocked
- » There are no minimums with our stocked sizes
- » Re-orders are easy with no minimum order or wait for delivery
- » Allows the customer to take advantage of our economies of scale

CARE & PAR LEVELS

- » Tablecloth inventory requirements are computed by considering one day's use in service, one day's use on the shelf and one day's use in the laundry, as a minimum
- » Correct par level will extend the life of your linens
- » Your property's needs may vary according to actual experience

*Indicates a floor length drop

Puddling - When the excess fabric of a square corner tablecloth with a floor length drape 'puddles' in corner of the table on the floor

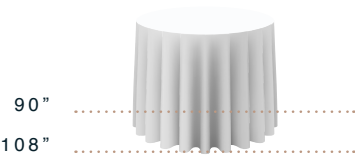

Radius Corners – When the corners of a floor length drape are cut on the curve as to avoid puddling. This makes the drop to the floor equidistant all the way around the table

Floor length cloths can be square or radius corner.
